2008 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP ENDOWMENT

If you would like to support and contribute $100 or more donation toward the 2008 National Championship Endowment, please indicate on the order form and include this payment with your order. This contribution is a ticket-related donation; therefore, two (2) priority points for every $100 will be assessed to your account point total.

GATORS FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Individuals found violating the Gators Fan Code of Conduct can be removed from the stadium. Non-Students, while not affected by the Student Conduct Code, are subject to arrest and prosecution under applicable laws and state statutes. Offenders' names will be forwarded to the UAA by the law enforcement representative reporting the citation. Season ticket holders are responsible for the behavior of anyone using their tickets and would be subject to this policy of the person using their ticket who violates the Code of Conduct. The University Athletic Association, Inc. reserves the right to remove the ticket holder from the premises if in the sole opinion of the security personnel, his or her conduct endangers or disrupts the players, coaches, officials, or fans.

A season ticket holder determined responsible for violation of the Gators Fan Code of Conduct shall be subject to sanctions commensurate with the offense and aggravating and mitigating circumstances, which may include one or more of the following:

For Ejections: The offender and/or season ticket holder will receive a letter or warning for the first offense. For the second offense, the season ticket holder may lose his/her season ticket privileges for the remainder of the season. For the third offense, the offender and/or season ticket holder may lose future season ticket privileges.
